ARIES MARCH 20 – APRIL 18

Usually obstacles are simply that, something to be overcome. Now, however, whether it's specific situations and certain individuals behind your problems, it's about the questions you ask, not swift progress. If initially this seems a distraction, the information you get reassures you there's lots to learn. Enough that by the week's close, your goals could look very different indeed.

TAURUS APRIL 19 – MAY 19

Giving up on prized goals, as it's likely you'll have to, is no failure. It's a recognition either circumstances or your requirements have moved on. So when events make it clear certain arrangements aren't working, think carefully about whether they're worth battling for. You'll probably conclude they're not. Besides, something far better is waiting for you, just around the corner.

GEMINI MAY 20 – JUNE 20

Witnessing things falling apart is no fun, unless you're aware these dilemmas will be explained by the Gemini new moon, early next week. Knowing this, forget about gluing arrangements back together. Instead consider whether what once meant so much to you, in terms
