This one works

IT'S not often I'll get a moisturising product and continue using it after I've tested it a few times but the Ultraform Daily Protector Moisturiser is a winner. It's a light-textured antioxidant, anti-irritant moisturiser with broad spectrum 30+SPF protection and suitable for all skin types. With key ingredients such as zinc oxide, vitamin E and oxybenzone you can't really go wrong with this one.

Price: $59.95. To purchase, head to www.ultraform.com.au to find the beauty salon closest to you.

For water lovers

LOOKING for soft silky skin? Then try out ebb&flow body wash. This product, which has been created by avid surfer Tim Hall, is perfect for Gold Coasters who spend a lot of time in the ocean. The genuine sulphate-free, paraben-free, vegan-friendly body wash contains ingredients certified by Australian Certified Organic and feels super yummy (yes, that is possible) on your skin.

Price: $19.95. Available online at www.ebbflow.com.au.

Loving lashes

ALTHOUGH I have super long eyelashes already, mascara is an important tool in my make-up kit. Eye Power Natural Waterproof Mascara is a superb blend of avocado and manny oil that cares for your lashes, and really boosts, lifts and separates them. It does not leave them looking glunky and it's perfect for exercise, party and is swim-proof providing you with 24-hour wear.

Price: $28.95. Available online at www.eyepower.com.
