back to black

THE TREND: The eyes have it – especially when they're accentuated with sexy, sombre shades and lots of liner. Make-up artists opted for a pitch-dark palette of thundery greys and Gothic black, blending seamlessly along upper and lower lash lines to theatrical effect.

THE TRANSLATION: Make this dramatic trend work for you by blending a dark-as-you-dare shadow liberally around your eyes with a fine brush. Finish with lashings of black mascara to anchor the look.

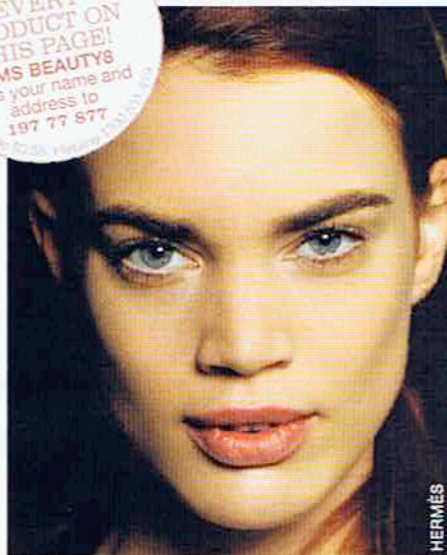

THE TRICK: Take a shortcut by running a soft black eyeliner pencil along your lash lines, then smudging with a cotton bud. Add a lick of mascara and you're done. ▶

standout brows

THE TREND: Forget thin lines and high, over-plucked arches; full eyebrows starred on the runways this season, either dark and over-the-top or thick and brushed upward.

THE TRANSLATION: Upsize your arches with a pencil or powder in a similar shade to your hair's natural hue. Apply using light, upward strokes to create shape and fullness. Use a brow brush to blend the colour, and hold the look with a slick of clear brow gel.

THE TRICK: Don't ditch the tweezers just yet – big brows still require precision grooming. The look you're after is naturally full, but never out of control. Book a professional brow shape first, then you can continue to maintain your new look. ■

GOLDEN ARCHES: 1 Clarins Eyebrow Kit in "Pro" Palette, $44. 2 Gorgeous Cosmetics Eyebrow Brush, $18. 3 Natio Eyeshadow in Mocha, $13.95. 4 Tweezerman Slant Tweezer, $39.95. 5 Maybelline New York Define-A-Brow Gel, $12.95. 6 Ere Perez Natural Aloe Vera Gel Mascara in Clear, $26.95. 7 Clinique Instant Lift For Brows (shown here in Soft Brown), $38.
